

Dennis Thomas

Partner Dennis Thomas provides clients with a comprehensive analysis of the tax and associated legal issues pertinent to their businesses and personal finances. He holds degrees in accounting and law, as well as a master of laws degree in taxation. He has become a trusted advisor for many closely-held businesses and their owners.

Dennis listens carefully to clients' needs and goals and determines ways to efficiently and effectively reach those goals while minimizing the tax liability. He specializes in complex corporate and business income tax planning and compliance.

Dennis also advises on estate planning and the administration of estates and trusts. His background gives clients access to the highest level of expertise in the area of taxation of property transactions. His decades of experience provide unparalleled expertise in business valuation, mergers and acquisitions, and tax matters concerning real estate owners and developers, including rehabilitation of historic structures.

In a constantly changing world, Dennis's background allows him to provide a unique perspective not available from most advisors. When he is not immersed in tax and legal issues, he can be found boating and fishing on Lake Cumberland or Dale Hollow Lake.
